The School of Toronto Dance Theatre presents IMPULSE 2011

TORONTO, ON – The School of Toronto Dance Theatre presents an ambitious main-stage performance of ensemble works, showcasing dancers from all three years of the Professional Training Program.

- First year students at the School will present a dynamic, vibrant, and energetic new creation by the masterful Julia Sasso.
- Second year students will perform in two new creations: a challenging, provocative, and intimate work by Heidi Strauss and another by Marc Boivin, returning for his fourth commission; his work embodies moments of great poetic beauty.
- Third year students will premiere a complex and physically explosive new piece by Roger Sinha, whose work explores the dissonance and tensions created by the cultural collision of East and West. Finally, Toronto audiences will be thrilled to see the third year dancers in the remount of an excerpt from Serge Bennathan's exhilarating The Trilogy of Sable/Sand, from Dancemakers' repertory, the 1995 Dora Mavor Moore Award winning creation for Outstanding Choreography.

IMPULSE 2011 is your chance to see tomorrow's contemporary dancers today.

WHEN: December 1, 2, 3, and 8, 9, 10, 2011. All performances start at 8:00 pm. Doors open at 7:30 pm.

WHERE: The Winchester Street Theatre, 80 Winchester St., Toronto See Map

TICKETS: $19 General Admission, $15 Students/Seniors/CADA Members (All prices include HST)
